The third biennial graduate student conference on Ancient Borderlands brings together young scholars from around the world to discuss cultural, political, social, and religious interactions in borderlands zones – both physical and conceptual. Papers will examine ancient borderlands in the Mediterranean, Asia, Africa, the Americas, and elsewhere.

Sponsored by the Interdisciplinary Humanities Center, the Ancient Borderlands MRG, the Department of Anthropology, the Department of History, the Department of History of Art and Architecture, the Department of Religious Studies, the Department of Classics, and the Late Antique MRG.
